

A fashion photograph featuring two women against a plain, light grey background. The woman on the left is standing, wearing a large, oversized pink blazer and matching trousers. She has dark skin, her hair is pulled up in a high bun, and she has dramatic purple eye makeup. She is leaning her head against the shoulder of the woman sitting next to her. The woman on the right is sitting on a white rectangular block, wearing a large, oversized sage green blazer and matching trousers. She has fair skin, short reddish-brown hair with bangs, and bright green eye makeup. She is holding a single pink flower with both hands. The overall aesthetic is minimalist and modern, emphasizing the oversized nature of the clothing.
